

Special Needs Ministry

Friends for Life

for Adults with Special Needs

Friends for Life is a ministry that believes our friends with special needs play an essential role in the church and in their community and we seek to encourage them to serve in the ways God has gifted each of them.

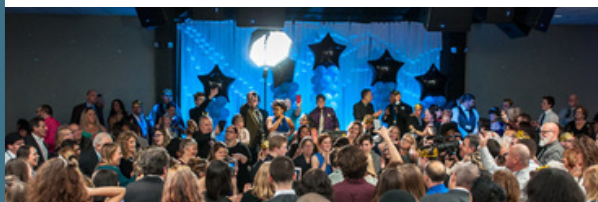

We typically meet once a month on the 2nd Friday at 6pm and enjoy a free sit down dinner, Bible lesson, games/activities.

Sunday Morning Bible Study

GPS is our Sunday morning program for adults (16+) with special needs. We have a class available during the 9:30am service weekly. This class is taught by individuals who have experience in serving the special needs community.

Night to Shine

Annually in February

Night to Shine is an unforgettable night, centered on God's love for people with special needs! Hundreds of guests and their buddies walk the red carpet, enjoy dinner, and dancing for a wonderful prom experience that ends with each guests being crowned King/Queen of the prom!
